Local Wedding Planning Company Launched to Provide Brides Professional Planning and Consulting Services

Centreville, MD – January 20, 2010 – Jody Walls, a certified professional wedding planner and owner of Diamonds and Confetti, a Professional Wedding and Event Planning Service enters the local market to service brides and their families during the wedding planning process.

Jody Walls earned her wedding planning certification from the Wedding Planning Institute (WPI) located in Roseville, California. Her extreme attention to detail and drive for perfection has allowed her to excel in the wedding industry. "I enjoy following all the new wedding trends and matching those with the different styles of my clients. I love what I do." Says Jody. "Every bride deserves to sit back and enjoy her special day while all the details have been taken care of to ensure a perfect day in every way, that is what we do." Jody Walls is active in the local community and is a member of the American Academy of Wedding Professionals, Lovegeivity Incorporated and also sits on the board of directors for Chesapeake Women's Network and the Queen Anne's County Chamber of Commerce.

Diamonds and Confetti offers professional wedding planning services for the Eastern Shore and surrounding counties. Diamonds and Confetti teams up with some of the area's most popular vendors to guarantee all your wedding day dreams are met. "If you can dream it, we can design it and you and your guests will never forget it. We specialize in designing signature weddings that are based on your likes and dislikes and that also includes a hint of your past and displays the future you will begin that day." explains Jody.
